“ Heartbreaking to hear that Al has passed on. We were stationed together in Nuremberg - he was so honest, open, positive, funny and fun-loving, absolutely one of my favorite human beings I've ever met! We had wonderful times exploring Bavaria. I'm sure he is greatly missed, my condolences.

Al and I met early on in our careers at Northern. Work partners turned into Halloween and Birthday parties! His great smile, infectious laugh and sense of humor among many other things brought us together. As our careers lead us down different paths, as things happen, we lost touch. But when we did see each other, it was like we didn't miss a beat! I pulled a couple of my favorite pictures from those times. Hugs to Adrienne and the kids! To Al, my friend, Rest In Peace ❤️❤️

“ Al touched so many lives in the very best way. I’m grateful I got the chance to know him as a colleague at The Northern Trust. I fondly recall hearing about the scrumptious meals Al will cook for his family and friends or hearing about his trips to Germany. May the special memories you made together help you through this difficult time. Keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers. Warm regards,

Al was an amazing individual and I’m blessed to have been his friend. We had many lunches together at Northern Trust, our families shared meals and many fun times. I have a story - not to be shared - from my bachelor party :-) and so many fond memories of my buddy Al. He is missed in the world. Deepest condolences to Adrienne and the rest of the family of this huge loss. Stay strong. God bless us all.

As a colleague of Al at Northern Trust for many years, I was so sad to hear of his passing. Al’s infectious mega-watt smile and sunny personality was a blessing to colleagues and clients and all who knew him. My sincere condolences to his family.

I just learned of Al’s transition. I remember his mega watt smile and his infectious laugh. While we worked in different areas of Northern Trust, he did work with a few people I knew well, so I saw him frequently, he was always kind and a great partner. God Bless his entire family, take your rest Al. Jacki Robinson-Ivy

I'm so sad to see this and I echo the comments of my friends above. Al was a light in my life there at Northern and a wonderful partner in many projects. Blessings. Cathy Van Camp
