“ MY DEAR AUNT ALMA, you were a loving and caring person. You provided for those who were family and those who weren't. You opened your doors and heart to all, you gave until there was no more to give. You took the best care of your son Roosevelt and Grandson Orin until you were no longer able. May you Rest In Peace as you join your parents Mama and Daddy Roby, sisters Laura Shead and Annie Dale Roby and brother Samuel Roby. You will be truly missed.

*Love Your Niece

LS

My deepest condolence to the family of Alma Williams Who can we consider it one of our mom's best friends. Our mom loved her so much. I pray they're having a great reunion in heaven now. There are moments that we can never re-capture but I feel honored to have been a part of our Play Auntie Alma's life. She was well loved. She was a dedicated spiritual servant, awesome mom and grandma, and she would be deeply missed. Love and soulful hugs, Linda Too Tall Spears; second daughter of Victoria (Vickie) Nelson, Alexander, Bell.
