“Annie Roy, your deep southern style warmth, and your seemingly close cousin type persona, and of course your ability to turn virtual strangers into real friends is what makes you a treasure . We were given the opportunity to know you, the high honor to call you friend, and the gift of our memories shared. Your laughter and smile served you well, and for that great gift you have and always will be remembered by your old friends as “Annie Joy”.
You didn't leave us empty, you left us full!

“ I am so saddened to say goodbye to my sweet friend Annie. She had just come through a surgery and was doing well. God needed her radiance in heaven... just wish we had more time. Annie was a joyful spirit here on Earth. Her warmth and humor and yes.. her wit, was a joy to be around. In fact, my nickname for her for years has been Annie Joy. She loved her family, her children.. and her friends. We all felt the warmth of her inclusive embrace. My heartfelt sympathy to her family and friends. Annie Joy, you will never be forgotten.
