“ So sorry to hear about Antonio...I really enjoyed and cherished the times we played football and did Math together. He was exceptionally smart without, I believe, not studying. It came natural. Athletic, he was definitely in the top five In Football and Basketball. We rarely played on the same team .. he was a competitor like us all back then. I remember playing football in the snow.. he loved that. Not just actually playing but he enjoyed when we played “Tackle “ in the snow. I learned how to be tough in order to win. I will always have nothing but love for those that I grew up with, played with, competed in the classroom and in sports. May God cover his Antonio”s love ones and those that he left a lasting an unforgettable memories with! Peace and Blessings ☐☐
