

Arma Jeanne Hall

May 28, 1937 - May 30, 2020

Arma Jeanne Hall was born May 28, 1937 to Odessa Marie Hall and Sheridan Sanders in Clarksdale, Mississippi. Arma Jeanne Hall was the oldest of nine children.

Arma Jeanne Hall was affectionally known as “Jeannie” and “Nani”.

Arma Jeanne Hall received Christ at an early age at Metropolitan Baptist Church under Reverend Jones in Clarksdale, Mississippi. Arma Jeanne Hall attended Mississippi Valley State University and obtained her Registered Nurse degree from Kennedy King College in Chicago, Illinois. Always a supporter of furthering her education, Arma Jeanne went on to obtain her BSN from Governor State University. Arma Jeanne dedicated her life to serving others and worked over 30 years at the Cook County Hospital.

Arma Jeanne helped so many grow into their own at Cook County Hospital and ultimately retired as the Director of Environmental services. Always ready to lead, Arma Jeanne was also elected as President of the LPN Association. Arma Jeanne would do anything for those she loved and was the matriarch of the family. Arma Jeanne loved to shop and travel; especially to Las Vegas. Arma Jeanne also loved traveling back to Mississippi to visit family and the casinos in Tunica.

Preceding Arma Jeanne Hall in death was Odessa M. Hall (Mother), Sheridan Sanders (Father), Minion Thomas (Sister), Clarence Powell (Brother), Tyrone Powell (Brother), Mike & Ike Powell (Twin Brothers), Shantell Hall (Granddaughter), Demetrius Powell (Nephew), and Onwar Powell (Nephew).

Arma Jeanne Hall leaves to cherish her memory; her sons, Larry V. Hall Sr., Lynn C. Hall Sr.; sisters, Gretna Hall, Ollie Powell and Shirley Giles. Arma Jeanne leaves a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends. Arma Jeanne Hall will always be remembered for her generosity and willingness to do anything for her family.
