“ Extending sincere condolences, prayer & love to my cousins Wylanda, Reggie, Derrick and Niece, to my Uncle Wilbur and Uncle Joe and to all other Watson Family. Our heart aches with you all because we have endured a lot during a short time span, with the passing of 3 of our beloved seniors, including my Dad, John Lee, as Aunt Bertha called him. Yet in the midst of it all, I encourage everyone to know that God’s got you. We will persevere, because God is the Greater One who strengthens us to overcome and keep moving forward. Hold on tight to the amazing memories of Aunt Bertha. Personally, I remember coming to her home with my Dad and Mom & family to visit or for a Watson family event, she would always have a lot of good food. She was always concerned about everyone eating and everyone having a seat....and would tell the kids “go get some more chairs.” Aunt Bertha had a lot of chairs!! I remember her sharing her plans to renovate her house to make more room for our big family to get together. This must be a trait of the Watson siblings because my parents taught us similarly that family spends time together, family sticks together, family loves each other and loves God, family supports and helps each other... so we have a great legacy to follow if we will dare to do so. Aunt Bertha...Forever in our Hearts!! 🌹❤️🙏🏻👤🕊️ -Cousin Gail Watson-Artis & Aunt Gladys Watson (John Lee Watson, Sr Family)
