“ I had the pleasure of meeting and working with Carl in the late 70s at J.F. Jelenko on west Washington Street in Chicago. He was a great guy and we stayed in touch long after the business moved. Some of my best memories of him were shooting pool at his pool hall (Bruiser’s) on E. 63rd St. and my crib in Glenview. I remember when he showed up at my brother’s memorial in Evanston when he got killed on a motorcycle in 1979- it meant the world to me even though I missed it. I was in Idaho at the time on my bike and couldn’t get back in time. I had no worries coming down to his neighborhood knowing he would be around (I’m a white dude, not that it matters) I’ll always miss him- Tony Wolf

“ Carl shared a special time in my life when we were classmates at Grambling State University. We actually shared an apartment together for two years. Carl was a good guy and I cherished the time we spent at Grambling. Rest in peace my HBCU Brother.
