

Carol J. Banks

May 21, 1949 - November 21, 2023

Carol J. Banks, 74 passed away suddenly on Tuesday November 21st, 2023 at her home in Hyde Park (Chicago), IL. Born to the late Keith and Virginia Banks in Chicago on May 21st, 1949. She went to graduate from Evanston Township Highschool (Evanston , IL) and earned her master's degree in college going on to work for the Chicago Board of Education. Ms. Banks was a long time resident of Chicago, but travelled around the world teaching and indulging in her love for archeology. Along with her love for archeology she enjoyed crocheting, and was known to always have her crochet hooks handy. She is survived by her sister Eileen Banks Matthews, her nephew and niece Rashied Matthews & Iman Matthews Puryear, her great nephew Noah Puryear, her aunt Mildred Wiley, and her cousins Keith and Alyanna Wiley. Along with many family members in New York and Tennessee.

Tribute Wall

LB

“ I remember my cousin Carol and her sister Eileen when we visited from Detroit, Mi. Carol was well spoken and had such a sweet spirit. I also have memories of that beautiful Afro she wore. Rest well cousin.

Lori Simmons Bell □

Lori Simmons Bell - January 24, 2024 at 05:36 PM