“ Ma Carolyn was so sweet to me when I moved to Chicago. I appreciated her hugs and love every time I saw her. She even saved a seat for me if the church was full. Love you Campbell Family.

“ To my work mother you will be missed so many talks, laughs, celebrations and more. As the celebration of your life is happening your (work granddaughter) will also be crossing the stage as a college grad with her bachelors in business. You were there when she started and will be smile down on us at the end. You will forever be in our hearts Fonella, Sherrelle, Dailen and Charleigh ❤️❤️❤️❤️

My deepest condolences go out to the Campbell family. I knew Carolyn since the mid 70's when we both worked for World Book in the Merchandise Mart. To say she was sweet and kind is an understatement. God has welcomed another Angel in Heaven. RIP Carolyn my old friend.
