“ You were, without a doubt, one of the most humorous people I've ever met! I only knew you for a short time, but realized that you had the ability to put a smile on anyone's face and had a gift for one-liners. I'll miss you as a next door neighbor; meeting you on the street as we rolled our trash cans back up to our houses on trash day and cutting up with one another about the nose neighbors down the street. You were also a brother in arms as we both served our country in the ARMY. RIP my friend!

“ Please accept my sincere condolence to the family. May you find strength and comfort In the God of all comfort. 2 Corinthians 1:3
