

Charon O. Kitchen

July 22, 1978 - July 31, 2018

Charon received Christ as her savior at an early age and was a devout Woman of God. She sang in the youth and adult choirs and was often found listening to her favorite gospel songs or practicing chords on her keyboard.

Charon attended Pope Elementary, Taft High School and graduated from Kennedy-King College with a degree in Early Childhood Development. It was a known fact that she LOVED children and the power of education in which she emphasized to the many children she encountered and mentored. She was also an active member the National Association of Black Social Workers, Inc.

Forever cherishing her memories are her brother, Richard Lee Jr., (LaTonia); son, Jaylen; godparents, Carol Leslie, Gerald & Sharon "Cookie" Wofford, and Pearlina Johnson; "The Sisters" - a small collective of young ladies who she shared a special, unbreakable bond with from childhood to adulthood; her "Strength," Dominique Bland, and host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, and friends.
