“ Cicero (aka “Ro”) was a gift of pure joy to all of us he touched. A founding early member of our CRISP program for students, ... gifted with a sense of humor and a charisma that was larger than life, Ro could (and DID) work a crowd with the best of us. Even while serving NRRA as the coordinator of our program, he led a group of students, making them literally the “hit” at the Vermont Captive Insurance Association (VCIA) conference one year and was always there to help us at a few of our conferences as well.

The good Lord took you away from us too soon, Ro, but probably wanted you up “there” with him so he could have the benefit of your kind sense of service and humor. We are all better for having known you as we did. Our memories of you will long outlast these flowers, but Chairman Tim Sullivan and I want your loved ones to know how much you meant to us!

From all your friends at the National Risk Retention Association, Godspeed, Brother Ro!

“ Cicero was my student in MATH 347 & MATH 448 Probability and Statistics. Always enthusiastic and hard worker. A great student organizer and a nice sense of humor. I will miss him in the corridors of Roosevelt U.

“ Cicero Brooks - You were and always will be the brother of my heart. I miss your smile and hugs, infectious laughter, insights about life, riding the indie circuits back in the day, and most of all I will miss your friendship. I will continue to smile through tears everytime I hear Tom Jones or see the Carlton dance. Much love to you, Brother. #Ro#Dark Gable.

Mama Brooks - please know that you are loved and we are praying for you and the rest of the family.
