“ Dine...remembering the times we sat on your mother's bed with Dette learning to knit. You...always a billion miles away convinced us to race to your room to places Pins on a globe, of the places we would see. You... now placed your Pin on Heaven and I will listen for the sound of laughter to find you there.

Childhood friend Glenda Rudolph

Mother of Dine and Dette, job well done, God bless.

“ I'll always remember Claudine and Claudette babysitting me and taking walks to the beach. So glad I had a chance to enjoy her at our Family Reunion last Summer. I will miss her but I will always remember my loving cousin. Love Caster

“ Claudine loved her family, ALL of us, and she always made sure that we knew it. She was ever present at the Parker-Rollins Family reunion and was determined to make it to Austin, even buying a scooter for the occasion. I have so many great memories shared with Claudine and I will always hear her calling me "Debra Ann" in my mind and heart with a smile.

Rest well, Dear Cousin, and thank for all the love you showed to me, Essence and Bailey. Praying for Cousin Gold and the entire family for strength, comfort and peace.
