

Cleo Juette

February 28, 1948 - March 29, 2020

Cleo Juette was born on February 28, 1948 in Shaw, Mississippi to Luella Juette and Monroe Banks. He was the fourth of five children. Mr. Juette graduated from McEvans High School and was a Quality Control Inspector for Ford Motor. After 37 years at Ford, Mr. Juette retired and worked as a driver for CDT Paratransit Company.

Deacon Cleo Juette passed away on March 29, 2020 and is survived by his loving wife of 51 years, Missionary Shirley Juette. His legacy will be forever cherished in the lives of his children: Torries (Josie) Gunn, Melvin (Sheila) Juette, Maurice Juette as well as 17 grandchildren, several great-grandchildren, and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; his brothers Amos (Edna) Juette, and Larry (Annie) Juett. Notable mention of Debra Brown Carter and James Brown who were the first of many godchildren.

“ I am going to miss my Uncle Cleo. I have just been sitting here reflecting on the love I have for him. For me he was the sweet brother (not that dad and Uncle Amos are not) I just believe that he was the balance between my dad (Larry) and Uncle Amos. I am going to miss coming to Chicago and when I had the occasional opportunity to have breakfast with Uncle Cleo, dad and Uncle Amos all together. When I say they are hilarious together they would have you cracking up just them being themselves and being brothers. It is going to be hard going by the house and him not being there. I remember years ago when I was writing my name and phone number down for Oppie and he said Cuz you don't know how to spell your name you left the e off the end. I said no Oppie I don't have the e at the end of my name, dad dropped the e and that is what is on my birth certificate. Oppie was like what is wrong with your dad there is an e at the end of the name everyone spells with the. Uncle Cleo was sitting there cracking up as we talked about the e not being at the end of my name. Uncle Cleo was tickled by that exchange. It was indeed funny because Oppie could not understand why I did not have the e at the end of my name. I had the opportunity a few years ago to go to Shaw for Shaw Days and having uncle Cleo, Uncle Amos, Aunt Shirley, and Dad all there was special. I loved my uncle and I am going to miss seeing him and hearing his voice. My condolences to my Aunt Shirley, and my cousins, Oppie, Boonie and Maurice, our family and friends. I am so sorry I was not able to be there but know that my heart and spirit was and that I am sending all of you my prayers.

“ Some of our favorite memories of Granddaddy were how he was always here every Thanksgiving with a smile on his face. We loved to spend the day with Granddaddy and Grandmama. He was cheerful and kind towards all of us. He liked to make us laugh. The best memory we have is all the hugs that he gave us. We love you, Granddaddy! Love, Melanie, Monica, Alexcyndrine, Vincent, Lacy, Aaliyah and Ana.

“ Oh Uncle how I will remember thee. The silent force behind the family. Little spoken words but love for your family showed all over your face . So sorry I cannot be there in these times but I send my love to the family, my Auntie Shirley I love you and miss you dearly. I'm praying for your strength and send my love to all of you my cousins yaw know I know what it is to loose a father and its hard but hold your head up and be the proud men that uncle Cleo raised you to be. I love you , Miss you and will always keep you in my prayers Pat

“ My sincere condolences to the Juette and Gunn families. Cleo's departure leaves me sadden and perplexed. We enjoyed 57 years of friendship as classmates and as teammates for the McEvans High School varsity basketball team. We were proud of each other's gradual progress through life. In our last conversation March 5, 2020, he was complimenting me on my Basketball Hall of Fame induction with such glee and pride as though it was his own achievement. He called his son, Melvin, also a Hall of Fame inductee, and encouraged him to give me a call to congratulate me for such honor. What a selfless, special friend!!!
As I continue life's journey, I will carry my memories with Cleo in my mind, heart, and spirit. He kept the faith and finished his course.
Now, may he rest in peace.
