“ I am just seeing this post and my heart is sadden as I have know this family with Abe for 50 years however I have known Hadessah for over 58 years. We were elementary BFF and family as I spent many days and sleep overs with the Van Hoose'. When my friend met Abe her whole life changed into and became a beautiful, loving, and happy entity . First, I loved Abe because he loved my friend and took her into his life as his beautiful wife. Secondly, I loved Abe because he loved me and I knew him from the old neighborhood. The first time we met again after he connected with Hadessah we clicked as brother and sister. My how he could tease me about being a Rangerett in which I never was but I grew up for a period and time in the hood. Abe was a quite and peaceful spirit always pleasant and kind. I thank God for his love and care for his family and when I met Abe again with my BFF I never worried about her care and safety ever again. Thank you for loving abs caring for my sister and friend. Rest In Peace my dear Big Brother and friend Abraham. 🌸🌹❤️🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

“ My grandfather always seemed a quiet and meditative man. He was always encouraging me to develop my mind and support my family. He never let me believe limiting stereotypes about blacks or women. I know he was proud of my every academic and service achievement. I will continue to see him cheering me on, although he is no longer on this plane of existence.
