

Deborah Denise White

March 7, 1953 - November 17, 2025

On March 7, 1953, Rosetta and Leon White welcomed their only daughter, Ms. Deborah Denise White, in Chicago, Illinois. Her love for socializing with others began at a very young age, enjoying many summers making lifelong memories. She was twice an alumna of Chicago Public Schools, elementary and high school. On October 1, 1969, Deborah welcomed her first child, Kenneth D. White Sr. Professionally, she earned her Bachelor's and Master's in the field of Education. Within her field, she grew to become an HR Generalist Principal in the United States Postal Service of 32 years until her retirement on December 31, 2018. In her personal life, she enjoyed a side career in real estate being a real estate agent for 13 years. If you asked, people would describe Deborah as having a larger than life personality. She loved community and being able to connect with people through all avenues of her life. You would witness these moments during shopping sprees at her favorite places like Ashley Stewart or Macy's, traveling to places such as Africa and Etopia, and enjoying being a master player of games of Bid Spades and Whist Card. Deborah is preceded in death by Mr. & Mrs. Leon and Rosetta White. Deborah leaves to cherish her only child/son, Kenneth Sr (LaTonya), daughter-in-law, three grandchildren Mea (Demetrius), Kenneth JR & Daniel White. Great-grandchildren Myelle and Oliver III, brother Lee White. A close Girlfriend Sherri Horan-Evans that was with her till the end and a Play Daughter & Son Jeanie (Greg)
