“ We know that it's hard to accept death no matter when it comes, but we know that God does all things well and that He knows what's best. At a time when words are so hard to find, know that you are cared for very deeply and loved greatly by so many. While we may feel helpless at times in knowing how to comfort you, the Lord knows exactly what you need. He will minister peace & comfort to you in many unexpected ways. He will walk with you through the coming days & see you through each one. God has promised to wipe every tear from your eyes, to be there loving you, strengthening you & giving you what you need to face each day because He has said in His word "Never will I leave you, never will I forsake you." (Hebrews 13:15) No matter what happens, God will hold you close & see you through because you are so precious to Him. God cares right down to the last detail. (James 5:11) Lynette, please know that my prayers are with you as you mourn the loss of your sister, Ms. Denise Campbell. Although her transitioning seemed unexpected, know that God was not surprised and now she's safely resting in the arms of our Heavenly Father. In your quiet time, reflect on her life and the many memories that you shared together & hold those memories close in your heart. Now as the days ahead may be difficult, look unto Jesus for comfort & to fill the void your sister has left in your life. May the Lord comfort you with His peace...surround you with His presence...and encourage you with His love. Prayerfully submitted by Minister Mona Lisa Hayes
