“ I will always fondly remember playing at my cousin Edward's home with my cousins in Mississippi. I will always remember him for his broad smile and hearty laugh that went with it. He was a loving father & husband. When the family left for Chicago, it was a moment of sadness for me but I knew that no matter where he and the family went that success would follow as God always watch over him and his family Though it has been many years since I last laid eyes o him, my faith in God's promise of the Resurrection says that I will greet him again and we will have all the time to catch up. Rest well Edward!
