“ We can only hope that you rest in peace. My husband told me of the beautiful memories he has of you loving on my toddler sons as they came through your check out lane. Thank you for accepting their love and showing them so much love.

“ I'm so sorry. She was one of my passengers on the CTA bus that I would wait for as she would be running down 60th St to get on the State street but to go to work at Mariano's in downtown Chicago. My prayers are with you and your family. She would share her pictures of her grandson.
