“ My grandmother meant the world to me. She was my everything in life. I will truly miss her. I will miss everything about my grandmother. She was a strong woman who taught me all the life lessons, from learning how to cook, to using proper grammar. We even discussed politics as I got older. I learned the word "constituent" from her! She is now with my mom, my uncle, and my grandfather (her husband). May they all rest in Paradise!
