“ Auntie, I wish you nothing but peace and rest. To the rest of the family, my prayers and condolences'. I know you are in good hands now. You have left a lasting impression on all that you encountered, I am thankful and grateful for knowing you. During our last conversation in November, you said God's will was well with your soul. I loved and hated that statement at the same time. Your faith and love for God is strong, I know that will bring peace to those of us that love and miss you. My favorite memory is of the 1st time I saw THE WIZ, was at your house, while you were braiding my hair. Loved it so much, when I went to see it on Broadway last May, I thought about you the while time. Love you always and forever..Seciley Love-Nelson

“ Our family had the honor and pleasure of meeting Ms. Woten when she moved to Winston-Salem, NC. She was one of the most caring and giving people you would ever meet. Whenever you would ask her how she was doing, she would always respond, "wonderful", "wonderful". We are going to miss you so very much, but we are so glad God allowed our paths to cross. Love, the Chadwick, Cherry, and McCalop families.
