

Frank M. Butler

June 29, 1964 - April 5, 2026

Frank Butler affectionately known as "Frankie B" and "Man" was born on June 29, 1964 to Gladys Butler and Benny Hinkle, they both preceded him in death. He started his work career at an early age working with block clubs, parades, politics until he created his own Security Company. He worked for Congressman Gus Savage for many years. He later started his own security firm where he held various contracts throughout the City Of Chicago. He worked until the doctors informed him that he couldn't work anymore.

Frank was a go getter, rambunctious at times. He DJ'd around the city and was in various DJ groups. He always helped out when and wherever needed. Frank was someone you could count on to be there for you when needed. He was a protector and a provider. He was known as an individual that loved, admired, and adored his family.

He leaves to cherish his memories his three sisters Angela, Annette and Lorrie. His children, Frank Jr. (Shawntell), Jarvis (Amy), Cordarro, Patrice and Erica. His grandchildren (Kyla, Kyle, Kimani, King, Trashawn) and a host of nieces, nephews and other family and friends.

You could always count on a good laugh when you were around Frank. He will truly be missed.

“ My Godfather,

You have been one of my strongest rocks since my dad, JC, passed away. We talked about life, politics, world affairs, and you knew the business. We laughed, cried, and rejoiced about the memories of your friend. The Bad Boys were one of many common bonds. You will forever be in my heart and thoughts! I'll miss you and never forget the love, support, and concern you always showed me. Rest well! Love you always.
