“ You could not have been a Curie Class of '86 student without knowing who Ivory was. I have many fond memories of Ivory. He loved music and drama like I did and this is where our path crossed. He was charismatic, lively, funny and kind. He sang his heart out in Mr. Baumgartner's choirs. In fact, in Fall of '85 we had the unique opportunity to sing for a week with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Upon our cue, our chorus members had to pop champagne poppers (the kind where the streamers fly out). Ivory, being the funny guy he was kept shooting them into the tubas. On the final Friday, the CSO tuba section was ready for him. Before he could shoot the poppers, they all got out of their chairs and showered Ivory with streamers. It made for a very memorable time for all of us in the chorus. Ivory use to tease me and say, "Jerry, your one of us because I know your real name- Jeremiah, and that ain't a white name." I always felt proud that Ivory was a member of our class and I will never forget him. God Bless you Ivory. RIP. Class of '86 4 ever!!!!

May your warmth and laughter transcend the physical and extend beyond time to accompany those who had the privilege of sharing space with you, as they share stories throughout future generations, keeping you alive in infinite memory. May your journey be effortless and your presence eternal.
