

Izella Scruggs

June 27, 1932 - October 21, 2021

Izella Scruggs, affectionately known as Zell, was born June 27, 1932 to Lois Greenwood Scruggs and Sid Scruggs in a small town called Chulahoma, Mississippi near Holly Springs, Mississippi. She was the youngest of six children. She relocated to Chicago, Illinois as a young woman to join her two eldest siblings Florine Scruggs Harmon and Mae Frances Scruggs Jones to further her education. Izella attended and graduated from Inglewood High School in 1953. Continued education was very important to her. She received various certifications and acquired numerous skills in office management. Prior to her death, she was employed with Rainbow clothing company where she worked for 20 plus years. Zell accepted God at an early age and her faith in God was very important to her. She was a devoted member of Mount Pisgah and Greater New Mount Pisgah for over 50 years where she took on many leadership roles. Zell was the matriarch of her family at the time of her death. She leaves a legacy of love and will live on through everyone she touched. Izella leaves behind cousins, nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and a host of long standing friends. She will be forever loved and missed.

Cemetery Details

Private

Tribute Wall

“ Izella Scruggs

October 09, 2023 at 04:52 AM

“ Hi everyone my name is andre odum I was Izella boss .This is very hard for me to Wright. after working with this women of God for almost 4 years we became very close in that time . When I tell you guys izell work very hard at what she did. when I say a dedicated employee is an understatement I have never met a Person who go so hard in what they do. I would tell izell go sit down somewhere you don't have to do all that lol!! She would tell me I got this thronging her hand up like boy by lol!! , we had so many conversation on an everyday basis words I will always cherish forever. me and one of the big bosses always said it was a joy to see her show up for work the young kids didn't compare to all her work she has done . this women of God will be missed it hurt me that I was unable to say my good bye and see you one last time . Also the staff and also an over load of customer who wanted to show there respects to you again you truly will be missed till we meet again R.I.H Izella Scruggs

andre odum - November 21, 2021 at 12:32 PM

BN

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family and church family. I will always remember Izella as a loving and kind person. She was my Wedding Director many many years ago.

Barbara Nightingale

Barbara A Nightingale - November 05, 2021 at 06:00 PM

“ Sister Scruggs and I shared the same Sunday school class under the teaching of Sarah Williams. She is gone but certainly not forgotten. Keeping her family in prayer.

Marie Williams - November 05, 2021 at 02:50 PM

HW

“ Hortense Williams lit a candle in memory of Izella Scruggs

Hortense Williams - November 05, 2021 at 01:34 PM

HW

“ While growing up at Mt. Pisgah, I remember Zell marching in with the choir as they sang, "We've come this far by faith." I will always remember her high pitched voice that stood out from the others. As a member of Greater New Mt. Pisgah, she was faithful and truly a dear friend. Rest in peace Zell.

Hortense Williams - November 05, 2021 at 01:33 PM

PA

“ Patricia Allen lit a candle in memory of Izella Scruggs

Patricia Allen - November 01, 2021 at 10:58 AM

PA

“ I hope that you can find comfort and the memories of her life.

I joined the children choir at Mt. Pisgah. I Rember Izella Scrubbs in the Choir and especially when she read the announcement for the church.

Patricia Allen - November 01, 2021 at 10:56 AM

JB

“ I, too was a member of Mt. Pisgah M.B. Church and remember Izella Scruggs being a member and singing in the choir. Sometimes she would do the church announcements....Rest on child of God...To her family, you all have my “Deepest Condolences.”

Jean Boughton-Brown

Jean Boughton-Brown - October 28, 2021 at 09:31 AM