Thanks to Calahan for streaming and recording the service. I am a friend of Irma Clark but at age 82, I don't go out much during the pandemic. I so enjoyed hearing Toni Bell sing In This Very Room accompanied on the organ by Asmir, the grandson of my dear friend, Frances Weaver. The Eulogy was very uplifting and comforting that our Shepherd will go all out to get us when we are lost, will not scold us and will even carry us back into the fold. Yes And the Minister gave me a new translation to The Lord is my Shepherd, I have Everything I need! Amen and Amen. God be with Irma and the family!! He is the God of All Comfort. Sincerely, Ragina L. Bunton, friend

“ On behalf of the Gross Family of MS {My siblings: Dave, Doris, Frances, Reda and spouses}, we would like to extend our condolences, prayers, and support to he James Clark Family at this time. For Larry has been a integral part of the Gross family for almost 50 years and he has shown us the the importance of family by showing us how much he cares for his family. Therefore, we would, again, like to express our sympathy to the Clark Family.
