

James Edward Farland

August 28, 1952 - January 15, 2026

James Edward Farland was born to union of Mr. Chatman Farland Sr., and Rev. Earlean Farland, in Greenville, Mississippi on August 28, 1952. James was one of ten children.

James received Christ as his personal Lord and Savior at an early age under the Pastoral leadership of Elder Shedd at his home church, in Greenville, Mississippi.

James graduated from Eisenhower High School. He later attended Olive Harvey Junior College where he participated in an auto mechanic apprenticeship. James worked on cars for over 40 years, until his health began to fail.

James loved God, his family and friends. He was dependable, loving and caring. James used his talents and gifts to help many people by fixing their cars in a compassionate and professional manner.

James is preceded in death by his parents, Chatman Farland Sr., and Rev. Earlean Farland, brothers, Chatman Farland, Jr., Joseph Goode, Joseph Farland, Eddie Lee Fields, and sisters, Beulah Tillman (James Ellis Tillman), and Pearl

Lewis (Sergeant John Lewis).

James leaves to cherish his love and wisdom, two loving sisters; Patricia (James), Deborah, devoted nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, many dear relatives and faithful friends
