“ To Mother Hilson and The Saulsberry Family,
It is with deepest sympathies that we express our love for you and the family in your time of bereavement. Having had you and Bro. Hilson spend so much time around our ministry at Morning Chapel down through the years you both seem like honorary members. We know he will be missed by you, the family, friends, and certainly the church. We know your faith, the faith of your children and grandchildren will sustain you all through this difficult time. We will continue to lift you and your entire family in prayer. May God’s promise sustain you “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.”
Hebrews 13:5
In his service,
Pastor Calvin and Sis. Jacqueline Whitlock

“ Mrs. Hilson, Sis. LaQueta, Micah, Sarah, Noah, Jeriah and family, as we share in this time of bereavement, I extend condolences and my love to all of you. As the Lord has granted you strength and perseverance during the time of Mr. Hilson's illness, our God will also continue to do so, along with His peace, comfort and abiding love in his transitioning from his earthly home to his eternal life in heaven. My prayers are continually for your family.

On behalf of the Saulsberry, Bright, Stallings, and Webb families, we express our deepest condolences to Mrs. Hilson, LaQueta, and your siblings. And the dear grandchildren.

We are praying for everyone's comfort and safe travels. Be comforted with the knowledge that there is no more suffering. He has peace and joy eternally.

To God be the Glory, as often spoken by Mr. Hilson's son-in-law, the late Reverend Kelvin DeWayne Saulsberry, who joined others welcoming him into the Heavenly gates. Amen

Mrs. Hilson and family, we want to express our deepest condolences from the Saulsberry families in Byhalia, Mississippi, and Memphis, Tennessee. Our families were joined through the love of your beautiful daughter, Laqueta Hilson Saulaberry, and the late Reverend Kelvin DeWayne Saulsberry. May you be comforted knowing your dear husband, James W.Hilson, lived a good life and is at peace with no more suffering. He leaves a legacy of love to you, children, grandchildren, and many other family members. We will continue to pray that everyone will have safe travels. We pray for guidance and grace as you prepare to celebrate the homegoing of your shared soul and helpmate. All in Jesus' name. Amen. On behalf of the Saulsberry, Bright, Stallings, Webb, and all connecting families.
