“ I was the Family Service worker for Mrs. Williams childcare centers. She was such a beautiful woman and always so kind. We would have so many talks about life and other things. She would always motivate me while I was in school and talk about how hard I was working. I'm still in shock about the news and I'm praying for her husband, children, and family and friends. Rest peacefully ❤️😭

“ To my Aunt Jo Ann. I love you with all my heart and I miss you. You have inspired me in so many ways and taught me so many lessons. Words cannot express the love I have for you and how blessed I am to have had you in my life. I will cherish every moment that we shared. My heart breaks, but I find peace in knowing that you are with God in heaven.

“ The Word of God says: Then the dust will return to the earth as it was, and the spirit will return to God who gave it (Ecclesiastes 12:7). As we mourn the passing of our loved one, we rejoice in knowing that her spirit lives within each of us, and her soul is at peace beyond all earthly measure. May we remeber her fondly and celebrate all of the intangible gifts that she shared with us as a family. Much prayer, power, and peace to the family and all the branches that stretch deep and wide. - Tina Franklin-Brtrand & Family

May he inspire you with the reflection of heaven in earth, from the seeds and flowers, to the mountains and springs. “ I will miss my Aunt Jo Ann dearly. She will always and forever be someone I look up to and admire. Everyone who I've spoken to about her always mentions how she had a very open and welcoming manner. She treated everyone like family. I have constantly ask myself why did she have to leave us so soon? I find peace in knowing that she is up in heaven, welcoming all those that may join her. The Lord needed her more than we did. It hurts, but I understand.

I met Joann at our fellowship Heart Of Worship. Both her and her husband were always smiling and unity. It's always a pleasure to fellowship with them. Wishing now I would have been more intentional and getting to know both of them even better. Will miss her smile and gaze. We will fellowship against. Our condolences is extended to the entire family.
