

John D. Webber

December 26, 1937 - April 1, 2026

John D. Webber was born on December 26, 1937, in Chicago, Illinois, to the union of Leroy William Webber and Nellie Frances Webber, both of whom preceded him in death.

At an early age, John accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior, carrying his faith with him throughout his life.

John was a fun and loving individual who enjoyed music—especially jazz—as well as bowling and shooting pool. He brought joy to those around him with his warm spirit and love for life.

On July 10, 1966, John married Jeanette Griffin at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church. Together, they blended their family, bringing into their union John's daughter, Sandra, and Jeanette's son, Steven.

John was one of thirteen children and was preceded in death by five brothers: Richard, Robert, Cleveland, Willie, and Haskin Webber; and seven sisters: Estella Jones, Leanna Berry, Marie Rhodes, Louise Thomas, Mary Ella Calloway, and Elizabeth Williams. He was also preceded in death by his grandson, Shawn Griffin.

After a lengthy illness, God called John home on Wednesday, April 1, 2026.

John leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife of 60 years, Jeanette; a daughter, Sandra; a son, Steven; a granddaughter, Suporia; four grandsons: Steve, Devon, Terrell, and Brandon; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and dear friends.
