

Johnny Fisher

March 6, 1955 - August 11, 2022

Johnny Fisher was born on March 6, 1955 in Chicago, Illinois to Esau and Rosie Fisher. Johnny was the sixth child of twelve children. Both parents, four sisters Jackie, Joyce, Clara and Cynthia: four brothers Michael, Kenneth, Esau Jr. and Wayne all preceded him in death.

Johnny confessed his life at an early age. Johnny attended Dvorak Elementary School and Hess Upper Grade Center and later graduated Wendell Phillips High School.

Johnny, affectionately known as “POOH,” was the life of the party. He was a man of few words, but when Pooh spoke, he told the truth. Although Johnny never had children of his own, he helped raise some of his siblings’ children. Johnny was affectionately known as Uncle-Daddy.

Johnny had several nicknames: POOH, UNCLE-DADDY, POP-SQUALLE, CALLINI, and JOHNBOY. Johnny loved to sing, dance, and cook his favorite food- pinto beans, oxtails and corn bread.

Johnny met the love of his life Linda Grant in August 1991. He assisted in raising her two sons Maurice, Nathaniel, granddaughter Natalie Maxwell as well as a God son Richard, whom he loved very much.

Johnny was employed by Round Tube for a short period of time until his health failed.

Johnny departed this life peacefully on August 11, 2022.

Johnny leaves to cherish his fond memories three brothers: JB Wilson, (Betty), George (Isalee), William (JoAnn) Two Aunts: Clara Eubanks and MaePearl Hunter, The Love of his Life Linda Grant, two stepsons Maurice and Nathaniel Maxwell, Grand-daughter Natalie Maxwell, Godson Richard whom he loved very much and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.
