

Julia Latonya Lewis

January 12, 1980 - July 28, 2023

Julia was a quiet and sweet spirited person who was loving and kind. She always expressed great love for her family.

Born January 12, 1980, Julia was the youngest of five (5) siblings: Mary Ann, John, Jr., Billy, Lisa, and Bessie who preceded her in death (less than one year ago).

Julia attended Bowen High School. Also, she attended a neighborhood church with her family. In addition, she attended church services with her sister. However, due to her chronic illness, she was unable to continue many activities.

She was extremely attentive to her son, Michael Jr, of whom she was enormously proud. Thus, she always said, "I am teaching him how to take care of himself." Thus, she supported him in all his educational activities because she wanted the best for him, always.

Julia leaves to celebrate and mourn her death: a committed fiancé (Michael, Sr.), a son (Michael, Jr.), two special friends (Shanta and Tasha), Siblings: Mary Ann (Deacon Willie), John (Deanna), Billy (Roberta) and Lisa. She also leaves Uncles and Aunts: Deacon Bill (Emma), Aunt Lois (Troy-proceeded her in death), Aunt Rosie (Apostle H. L.), Aunt Virginia (resides in Memphis Tennessee), and Aunt Debra. Aunts: Liddle, Dorothy, Tempie, Jean (Charlie), Samella and Uncles Ike and Leon proceeded her in death. Also, she leaves a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
