NT

“ Losing a loved one is often hard to endure and the pain may seem to be overwhelming, at times even causing anxieties however Jehovah God wants you to seek refuge in him during this difficult time. It states in Psalms 96:19 When anxieties overwhelmed me, You comforted and soothed me. and verse 22 But Jehovah will become a secure refuge for me, My God is my rock of refuge." May you find comfort and security with God.

“ The way that I look at this transition is that Keith was so full of light that his physical shell could no longer hold him. Instead, he is now apart of everyone who knew and LOVE him making him larger than life and forever young. #LOVe

“ Keith was more than a big brother. He was my best friend. He was the shoulder I would cry on. The first person I would call on. We did everything together that was until he got his license of course... He was an amazing uncle, brother, son, and friend. My heartaches waking up to know that he isn't here with me. I look forward to the day that I will see him again. I know I will. I'm going to walk and talk the way he would want me to. The way God would want me to. I will see you again Keith.... I love you to the moon and back. And When I do see you be ready for me to jump on your back. LOL....
