“ I remember him joking around and doing a Eddie Griffin imitation - he would wink his eyes fast. Then i remember that two step dance he would do, it was funny. But there was also the friend side of Kenny. I got injured once and Kenny stayed at the house till i healed.

“ My funniest memory was Kenny first time going to the Country Buffet. I told Kenny he could eat anything he wanted while we were there and he said you can't anything with you??. I told him no and he watch me lol. Next thing I knew he grabbed some napkins and started putting chicken or as he would say yicken lol, mashed potatoes, dessert and macaroni in his napkins lol. He had a complete meal with dessert for later lolol. When we got in the van going home all we smelled was his food. Everyone was scared he would get caught especially our sister Vanessa. That was a great fun-filled day.

You was definitely his baby girl, his pride & joy. He was so excited when you finally had the baby! Remember when he kept talking, when we were supposed to have been quiet when the doctor was in the room? Oh gosh, he had everybody crying laughing!
