“ Dear family: No doubt Kesha appreciated the wonderful gift that life is. Our Heavenly Father cares for us and hates to see the suffering that is taking place worldwide. Better than anyone He can mend your hearts. We read at Psalm 147:3 “He is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots.” He promised that soon, He will restore the Paradise. Mankind will not be subject to criminals, sickness, accidents, and death; furthermore, we will be at peace with the animals. (Psalm 37:11, 29; Isaiah 11:6-9; 65:21-23; Micah 4:4; 1 Peter 5:7; Revelation 21:3, 4) But until then, when we are plagued with disquieting thoughts, Jehovah God invites us to rely on Him to comfort us. In Isaiah 51:12 He said: “I myself am the One that is comforting you people.” Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who can comfort you in all your tribulation. —2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

“ I was fortunate to have known Kesha because she was married to my cousin Reggie. I felt close to her because we shared the same first & last name. She's truly going to be missed amongst her family and friends. Remember earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Mrs. Lakisha Swanigan Ingram

VO

“ To the family of Mrs. Kesha Swanigan I offer my condolences. The hardest thing anyone can endure is the death of a loved one. I find comfort in the promise God has made to swallow up death forever and wipe away tears from our faces. (Isaiah 25:8)
Very soon God is going to keep this promise.
Sincerely Valerie Ortez
