“ Baby Kylei Ja'Adore Wise

October 09, 2023 at 04:52 AM

“ To the family of Kylei Ja'Adore I offer my deepest condolences. The hardest thing anyone can endure is the death of a child. I find comfort in the promise God has made to swallow up death forever and wipe away tears from our faces.

Very soon God is going to keep this promise.

My prayers are with you, Valerie Ortez.

“ Dear Wise family, I wanted to offer you my deepest sympathies. I was so saddened to hear about your loss, especially the loss of your baby. Hearing about it grieves me. I hope you will find comfort in the scriptures knowing that your lovely child is very safe now in God's memory even though it was not His Will for your baby girl to die. Perhaps it will comfort you to know that even though her life right now has been temporarily ended, she will be among those who will be resurrected, for Jesus Christ did not die in vain, nor was he giving us false hopes when he said at John 5:28,29: "All those in memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Please read and I hope you find strength in "the God of all comfort." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time of grief.

“ Dear Family,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one and send you my sincere condolences. The passing of a loved one can leave us feeling lost and heartbroken. But I've found very comforting words in God's word, the Bible. At Psalms 55:22, God promises to sustain those who throw their burden upon Him. God will also do away with death all together as brought out at Revelation 21:4. The bible also holds out the hope of a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death at Acts 24:15. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), comfort you in your time of need. Heartfelt prayers are with your family.

May the God of comfort and peace be with you through this painful and difficult time. Please remember this, in the near future, death will be NO more (1 Corinthians 15:26)!!!!
