Ms. Lela was a special friend of mine, I believe God put us together. I met her when I moved into the building on 79th Street, can't remember the year but it's been a long while ago. Our friendship grew over the years. She was Ms. Lela and I was Bea. We became close friends. God blessed our friendship and I will always be thankful to Him for bringing us together. I witnessed to her and she was baptized in Jesus' name, she loved the Lord. I will miss her deeply but she will forever be in my heart. To the family, you had a jewel for a mom. Hold on to your memories. That's what I am going to do. Remember God's Grace is Sufficient.

*Love you all, praying 🙏 for the family in Jesus' name.
