“ Thinking of my "birthday twin" today and will think of her, as I do every year, on "International Lia (& Angie) Day" come January 3rd. May those left behind, here on earth, keep her spirit alive with in each other.

“ Lia, Mike, Nevaeh you are loved. Lia did everything fully. She lived, loved, laughed, and did fully. Her strength to be vulnerable, to open the world to her pain, to her sadness, to her anger, but also to her intelligence, creativity, curiosity and joy was admirable, and touched so many. Her words so skillfully and creatively used to make people laugh and think will be missed. While Lia is no longer physically with us, she will live on through those who she loved and those who loved her. May she rest in peace.

“ To Mike and Neveah, I am so sorry for your loss. Lia was a great friend to me throughout the years. I will miss her very much. Her wit and sarcasm was her best attributes! That's what made her who she was. I am so proud of all her accomplishments she achieved. Her greatest accomplishment was being a mother to Neveah. Sending love and prayers.
