Miss Linda was a 'force'. No-nonsense, fun, funny and above all, she loved her children and made space in her heart for those who loved her children. She was a great lady, a real 'Grande Dame'. And though she'll never be gone as long as we remember her, we find our lives poorer for her passing. A space in the our tapestry, a hole in things where she once stood. She remains with us now in the face and smiles, laughter and tears of those she's left us to comfort and care for and she will be forever missed.
