I met Linda in the helping Hands Ministry at Valley Kingdom Ministry Intl. She was loving, kind and welcomed me with open arms. Later as time went on, I became sick and Linda became my ambassador for health and healing and gave me Tough medicine when I didn't want to listen to the doctors. She remained faithful, steadfast and stood by side every step of the way. And when I could care for myself, she did not hesitate to step in as welcoming me into her home. She treated me like a daughter and literally "nursed" me back to health. I will forever remember her acts of selfless kindness and compassion. I will cherish the good times Linda and I shared with her family. Forever always in my heart-Robbie

“ I am numb because I won't be able to talk and laugh with you anymore. There are so many happy and precious memories that we have shared. Life's richness and fulfillment depends on people like Linda; God shared you with so any of us. Rest in Peace my beautiful and wonderul sister. Thank You God for Linda. Dorothy Mason
