“ We will miss you Margarette. Andrella cries but says she does not know why. To your family stay strong this to will pass. When I think of Margarette I feel the love she had for my family, especially my mother. Mom was her confidante and Andrella and I later took that role. We were sisters. She will be missed.

“ I met Marg through Aleta Hunter and one of the things about her that I will always remember and cherish is our time that her, Aleta and myself had Bible Study over the phone reading/ studying the entire Bible. We would meet weekly to share our thoughts about God's word and the fact that her and I had never seen each until years later but we all had something in common which was a thirst for the word of God. She purchased a Bible Commentary that she was using at the time of our study. I will forever hold her in my heart for allowing me time and space in her life. RIP

“ So sorry 😞 for the loss of your mother. Just wanted you to know that the home going/celebration service were very fitting to your mother..

Enjoyed the musical selections, some of favorite songs of which I have on my Spotify inspiration playlist.. Rev Moss, III did an excellent eulogy with the comparison of her working at the post office and Proverbs 31
Thank you for sharing
Continuous prayers for you and the family

“ Met Marge and her lovely mom a few years ago at Ms Hunter's home after they had played golf. We had a ball, just talking and sharing! I will always remember the joy she brought to celebrations and the fun I had with her dancing. Her mom, likewise...

They were great women, and now they are together again! May God Bless your family with good memories and with the peace that only God brings. God Bless Aleta and Lolita for being loving friends as well.

Sincerely,
Vary Arrington

“ Marge was the best sistah girl , she loved to travel and I loved being her partner.

Golf was her game and serving God was her claim to fame. One year we decided we were going to read the entire Bible in a year, but that wasn't enough we incorporated a small group and started a prayer and meditation group meeting weekly.

*Missing my sistah girl. Love her forever

“ I truly wish I could be there to say so long for now and let my "Uncle Gus" know that he is always in my daily prayers and loved. Ms Marge and I have been in each other's company many times throughout the years, however, the one that touched me the most was our last earthly encounter. It was during the repast of my beloved "Mama Dorham" that she found me in the bathroom and I was teary because I wasn't feeling well and didn't want to get sick and embarrass myself of all days. I explained how I felt about not being there for her during her illness because I couldn't take care of me as she could see. She gave me a look and said, "She knows and I'm about to leave in a few minutes myself. No one will notice if you did now. Go home and take care of yourself. We'll get together again later. Well, later I pray it will be. She was always such a vibrant lady and made my "Uncle Gus" eyes light up and smile. I pray The Almighty continues to give him comfort and memories and know that I'm here if he and the family ever need me. I'll do my best, my lungs are stronger now and I'm getting better every day. Please stay safe and I pray I'll see you and the family again. Love Always, Sharon Leslie Grant "Shorty"

Your entire family have our sincerest sympathies on the loss of your mother.

I too, feel that I have lost a family member. When I think back on our 40 year friendship, I think of the first time we met. As we both were employed by the Postal Service, I had just been assigned to an office. The office was pretty old and the safe which held the stamp stock, had a combination that had not been changed in 25 years! So when the combination was changed, the next time it was opened, I was locked out.! Marge heard about it and showed up asking what could she do to help. That was who Marge was. She didn't know me, but she showed up to help anyway. We became friends that day.

My husband and I were always invited to family celebrations and she and Gus to my home. Especially on Christmas Eve for Chili, cornbread and "hello dolly" bars,

When my mom fell ill with cancer, it was Marge along with Aleta Hunter, who would come and sit with her.

It was customary that Marge, Aleta and I would celebrate each others birthdays by going to lunch and shopping the entire day. I am going to miss those days with her. We often had lunch once a month at each others home. There are so many instances where our memories of Marge are indelibly etched.

I know that she is in a better place and I know that it is heaven.

Love you Glenn and Lolita
