“ Ms. Mary was a very strong and smart women of God. God used her as a driving force to help me to complete a Bachelors Degree in Arts and Science. I asked her to affend my graduation and gave her a ticket. I wasn't sure she would attend. As i was walking down that aisle i saw her, she waved to me. I was so overwhelmed with joy and tears i almost couldn't walk. Thank you Ms. Mary E. Cunigan. To the Family and friends: May God give you His peace, comfort, support and strength during this time. He is able to mend your broken heart, fill the emptiness you might be feeling and change that sorrow into His joy. A joy that no man can take away.

“ *My sincere condolences to Mary's family.
She was someone who would never mince words. I was able to enjoy her hospitality and the great food she made for the Brunches she had for the L&D staff.
May she rest in peace.
