

Mr. Michael Bernard Dickens

October 17, 1952 - August 6, 2025

Michael Bernard Dickens was born into a loving, close-knit family in Washington, DC, on October 17, 1952. Many of those family members influenced his development into the man he became.

Michael was an “out of the womb” sports fan. He participated in youth athletic programs in his neighborhood in Seat Pleasant, MD, and was a valuable team member on the football team at DeMatha Catholic High School in Hyattsville, MD. At Monmouth College, Michael was exceptional as a safety on their football team.

Also, at Monmouth, Mike (or “Dick”, as many of his East Coast and college friends called him) met Debra, married Debra and within their 51-year marriage, raised Asha and Jabari (Jay), the loves of their lives. His Afrocentricity was piqued at Monmouth. He absorbed everything “Black Power” and brought it home to Chicago on school breaks, indoctrinating his nieces and nephews, and later his children and their friends and whoever else would listen.

Dad, Uncle Mike, or Mike, as he was affectionately known, was a shining light in the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing him. His journey on this earth was one marked by love, compassion, humor and wisdom. His passing leaves a void in the hearts of his family, friends, and many more whose lives were touched by him. We ask that you remember Michael, not for the way his life ended, but for the way that it was lived, and for the profound impact it had on the lives of those who had the pleasure of knowing him. Outside of his family and professional life, Michael found joy in gardening, stand up and improv comedy, playing tennis, football, pickleball and cooking.

We suddenly and unexpectedly lost the privilege of Michael's presence on Wednesday, August 6, 2025. Although he's not physically with us, his spirit lives on in the memories of those who love him: Debra, his wife, Eleanor, his mom, Asha, his daughter, Jabari, his son and siblings Darius, Kevin and April (Kenneth) Prophet. In addition, he had a cherished relationship with his sister's-in-law. There was no shortage of nieces and nephews (including greats) who lovingly hung onto his every word. All his East Coast cousins were special to him, and he enjoyed our annual visits to spend time with them, his mom and sister. Friends? He had many. Good friends? Yes, and they were great! We all miss Michael, the husband, father, son, brother, uncle, cousin, and brother-in-law!

Those who knew Michael will remember him for always knowing what to say to make people laugh, his revolutionary spirit, being present when needed, providing advice in moments when you had nowhere to turn - and didn't even ask LOL!

As you have become an ancestor, dear Michael, your light will forever shine brightly in our hearts.

We love you

“ It’s incredibly hard to put into words what I’m feeling right now. Losing someone like him—a true father figure in my life—is heartbreaking. He was one of a kind. Honest, direct, and always real with me, even when the truth was tough to hear. That kind of presence is rare, and I was lucky to have it.

I always knew where I stood with him, and I always knew he cared. His strength, his wisdom, and his impact on my life will stay with me forever.

It’s deeply unfortunate he’s gone, but I’ll carry his voice with me, always. Rest in peace to a man who meant more to me than he probably ever knew.

“ It’s really hard to describe what an impact uncle (UNC Mike) had on me. He’s been with me my entire LIFE! I’ll always appreciate the time, the laughs, and conversations we had. As a kid he took me to see the late great Ben Wilson play at DeLaSalle HS. I can definitely say he poured into me & the cousins and I’m forever thankful for that. Thank you UNK! Till we meet again. Love you UNK!

“ I remember on one family get together when Michael showed he had a big sense of humor when he and one of his late brothers inlaw performed a duet song of Patti Labelle and Michae McDonald "on my own" that I laughed so hard. My prayers are with you Debra, Asha, Jabari and your entire family on this special day of celebrating the life of Michael a one of a kind man who loved his beautiful family!!

Dear Michael, I like everyone else will miss you. Just seeing you enter a room with your beautiful smile and wit could lift anyone's heart. I know there is a big void in Cousin Eleanor 's heart, as well as Debra, Asha, Jabari and your brothers and sister. I was hoping that I would begin to see more of you. However it did not work out that way. Our loss is Heaven's gain. Now the angels have the chance to laugh at your sense of humor. Again, I will miss you. You will forever be in my heart .God Bless you. Love Cousin Carol.

“ Dickens,

Being the newcomer at Illinois Bell in 1995, I perceived you as that arrogant, Mr. no it all coworker for a good while. You always gave your opinion about something when I or someone didn't ask. Most of the time you were right. Even with your special choice of words, you always treated people with kindness, dignity, and respect. Your humor or course made coming to work more bearable, while your constructive criticism left people in a better headspace. You are a pillar of strength and a source of encouragement my friend. Thank you for the wisdom and kindness that touched many souls. You will always be remembered Dickens. Miss you my friend 🙏..

“ This man Loved his family first. Michael was kind to everyone he met. Mike took distractions that always come in life no... matter the circumstances and used humor to overcome them. Michael was a blessing and a treasure to his Home Depot Family, this man left an example to his coworkers "BE KIND". Sincerely, Ms Pat...Millwork Dept.

“ I met Michael at Monmouth College in 1971. He was quick-witted and always had jokes which never failed to crack me up. He was also a fan of Gil Scott-Heron as am I. The plants in his house and the plants and flowers on his patio were a testament to his green thumb and talent for nurturing beautiful things. You will be missed Michael.

“ Uncle Michael you were one of a kind hilarious,laid back and you had absolutely no filter but in a good way. Even before all of this every time I would hear a Frankie Beverly and Maze song or Bob Marley I would always think of you. You were a very good Uncle and an all around GREAT man. I Love you Uncle Michael and will miss you forever 😭😭

“ Michael,

I remember you from Monmouth College, and my heart breaks for when I think of your passing. I remember when you and Debra invited me to your home and I was sitting on the back porch looking around at someone who had created such beauty. Who, I wondered, had created this beauty? Someone sitting there noticed the puzzled expression on my face and asked if there were something wrong. When I mentioned the beauty all around me, she said, “Mike created this.” I was amazed! Mike, you are tending grounds somewhere, creating the beauty that God has placed inside of you. I will always miss you,

“ Mr. Mike was/is the epitome of a cool dad! He was easy going, fun to be around, caring and stayed active! My last memory of him was going to the movies and briefly talking about his fight with cancer. Fast forward a few months later he won his war with cancer. He was a fighter and a blessed man to have so many that loved him. He'll always be remembered and celebrated on my end!

To Debra & Family
As a Freshman entering the Monmouth College campus back in the early seventies I was the novice trying to find my way thanks to Mike I had to get it right! No half stepping..... Be a strong Black Man take no wooden nickels be confident in all that you do. This was the path Mike set us on as neophyte entering the world. Rest my brother we are blessed for having you in our lives.

Mike was my friend. We had a revolutionary friendship while at Monmouth College. We were students of Malcolm X teachings. Mike was a good football player. He started on the varsity team as a freshman. He was awesome!
Mike was a great person in this world, and will be a great person in Heaven. Dear Lord, bless the entire Dickens family.
