“ I worked with Michelle for several years at BIC theatre. I'm a senior and Michelle treated me with so much respect. If she cursed around me she would apologize with those beautiful eyes. One thing I know she loved God and her babies. Praying that God grant her family the peace needed to get through this. 🙏

“ I love you Mo 😭
I'm sorry I was able to make it 😭😭😭😭😭
This hurts so much....when I first heard... all I could think about was how much this is hurting Morrice to know that one of his favorite cousins you will be soon joining him... and the babies😭😭😭... my heart goes out to them... but of course you know they will be WELL taking care of...I'm just at a lost words... can't type for crying!!! Love you my other Mo😭😭😭😭😭😭

“ Michelle, I remember the day I promoted you to shift manager. You made me proud of you. Your passion to do the right thing and learn really impressed me. I will cherish the jokes and laughter we shared. You were a great person and your presence will truly be missed. It was a pleasure to have known you. Rest Well. ❤️

“ Proverbs 31:31: "Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate."

I only knew Michelle for a short period of time. I formed a collaborative relationship with her when I taught Mikel in 5th grade. Recently, I was afforded the opportunity to work with her again as I received Ranyal as a scholar this school year. All I can say is she was a breath of fresh air as it relates to the type of parent that you want to work with. She loved her children and she did whatever she could to ensure that their academic success was not derailed. I will miss working with her, she was truly a rare gem. To my babies, I am here for you. Whatever you need, I'll be there.

“ I am very happy to have known and loved her. Not only is she a former student, but she allowed us the privilege of teaching her progeny as well. She was a smart and loving individual, as well as a "present" mother. You will be missed.
