

Mr. Milas Armour

October 23, 1919 - June 18, 2014

Bro. Armour was affectionately called: Pops, Granddad, Jr. Armour & Uncle. Bro. Armour enjoyed being with his blended family especially during barbecue's, picnic and other family outings. He also loved traveling, fishing and going back to his Georgia roots and visiting his eldest nephew Johnny Strong. He worked as a switch man until he retired from the Belt Railway Railroad. He is known for his quick wit and one of a kind sayings! He worked very hard to provide for his family as he rarely missed an opportunity to work overtime. He leaves to cherish his legacy a blended family which includes his devoted wife Mary, his loving sons, Milas, III (Roslyn), Julius and Charles (Heather); Detina, grandchildren, great children, nephews, nieces, in-laws, cousins and many friends.
