“ Milton my brother, you will be truly missed. I can say this as your big brother you were a talker, but it's one thing you never talk to me about. You never told me about the illness you were going through. That's the one thing I can say you kept to yourself. Love you and rest in peace my brother.

“ Milton you were truly a big brother. You were dependable, loving, faithful and a protective, most importantly you were a God-fearing man. You had my back throughout life. You made sure you always graced me with your presence and support was given whenever needed. Now, I must find a new way to live life without you. This is heartwrenching to know this is my new norm going forward. During life challenges, he always encouraged me to read my Bible: God's word. He would say " GIVE IT TO GOD. " Milton you left me in pieces but you received GOD'S ETERNAL PEACE !

“ He was firm, strong, stubborn. It had to look like his ideals. He always meant well.

Anyone who knew my brother Milton, knew he was strong in his faith. He had a carefree attitude and trusted in God 100%. My brother lived life according to his own terms, knowing God would provide his needs. He found happiness in God, never stressing about what others thought of him. Love you brother!

To sister Vera, Family and Friends of Milton L. Walker:

God Almighty is the giver and sustainer of life, and we are the blessed recipients of this life. Jesus Christ gives life abundantly, eternally and filled with glory to those that love Him. Jesus says to everyone, “Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die.” (John 11:25-26).

So, then death does not have the last word and death is not the ultimate victor in life or in eternity. Jesus Christ has come into the world to set us free from the fear of death and to give us real hope for eternal life. Dear beloved family members and friends of Milton, there is hope for those who hurt and peace for those who are troubled. Death is an invasive enemy that causes sadness, grief, and weeping. But the bible says, “Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.”

May you find encouragement and hope today in the victory of the Lord Jesus Christ. Because the battle has already been fought & the victory has already been won. Jesus said, “Ask, and it will be given to you, seek and you will find, knock, and it will be opened to you.” Again, Jesus said, “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” Seek, come, trust, depend on Him, call on Him, look, listen, and receive Him – because Jesus will never fail you!

May the Lord richly bless you all,

Pastor Willie D. Woodmore and Members of Trinity Community Church
