“ To the entire Massey Family. We think of miss Odessa frequently. She was dearly loved by myself, my mom and brother. The year before she passed, she brought all her old photo albums in to show me and share her life journey with me. It meant so much. She was one of the most amazing, strong, loving, and beautiful (inside and outside) women that we have ever know. This morning, I found an old birthday card she gave me and my heart made me want to post today to just put out into the world that she was loved and is still remembered.

To The Massey Family, My deepest condolences, I met her thru her son, Ron. Mrs. Massey was a special lady! She did not take no stuff and at the same time would show you the warmest love. Washburne Ave. holds a lot of fond memories with her, for me and my children. May she R.I.P. Love Always to the family, Annette Roberson and Family
