“ Oliver J. Moore Jr. You had an infectious smile. You had an amazing sense of humor and you were one of the hardest working men I've ever met.

We married in December of 2010 and I remember you singing to me as I walked down the isle with my knees shaking.

You encouraged me that I had my own call and anointing to walk in. You not only supported me in ministry, but helped build the ministry. I could not have done it without you.

No one can ever take that away from you! You labored, prayed and sang your way into the hearts of many.

You loved and took good care of Kijuan and he loved you! Words cannot express what I feel right now. No matter what, you were my husband.

I am glad you are finally at rest. No more struggle or pain. Now you can sing and beat your tambourine before the Lord Himself!

I choose to remember all that you labored to help me build and the life we shared together. I will never forget you.

Rest well! ❤️
