“ I remember Aunt Ollie mae, use to come to our house bring gifts. She was always nice and polite. She and my mother got along good and was so glad to be connected again. I enjoyed her presence. She would invite us over her house and we would play board games and listen to music. She was a happy soul, that made others feel welcome in her presence.

“ Ollie was the most creative and gifted person I have known. Though she grew up in the South with limited opportunities, she taught herself how to succeed in the big city. There was nothing that Ollie couldn't do--from preparing gourmet meals to creating stunning crochet pieces. I will always treasure the lovely pink afghan she made for me when I was going through treatment for breast cancer. She will be missed by family and friends.

Thank Auntie for sharing your memories regarding my mom! My mother loved all of her sisters and brothers very much!
