“ I think about you all the time. From seeing you in the halls at school, to seeing almost every Saturday in choir rehearsal since we were little kids. I just wish we kept in contact more often.

“ My condolences goes out to Omarion J. Brownlee. I may not have known you as I came across your page but my heart goes out to you and your family nothing short from the divine blessings to never be in sorrow but always know that there is a higher power among all of us to do what is good for one another.
