“ We will truly miss you Uncle Curly, RIP, you lived a wonderful life full of joy, happiness and love. The memories of you will forever be in my heart. I'm praying for the family, for peace that only God can grant. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord, says it best. Love you.

“ I thank God for Uncle Curly - For the relationship and many heart to heart talks we shared. And the impact he's had in many of our lives. Sometime in the last year, He told me that God waters our prayers. I had never put that way before. We can rest assured that when we pray, God Almighty hears us and waters our prayers. Much Love & Comfort to all of us as we share in this Homegoing Celebration.

“ From my early childhood days, I remember when Uncle Curly, along with Pam and Andre, would come to visit us in Mississippi. When he pulled his car in the driveway, we would run to the car as we were so happy to see them. Soon thereafter, we would jump in the car and ride out near Benoit, where he grew up, and take pictures of an old abandoned church. During most of his trips, he brought along his siblings and Mom, and they would stay for weeks. Uncle Curly often spoke of those down south experiences as being "nothing but love", and "the best days of his life".
Uncle Curly might be gone, but he will never be forgotten.
"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day..." (2 Timothy 4:7-8.

“ The memories of my dear Uncle Curly are indelible. I will always remember the good old days when he came to Mississippi from Chicago to visit his sister Willie Mae and family. We enjoyed so much our uncle and cousins coming to visit us during the summer. I will always remember his love for family and always staying in touch. Rest on, Uncle Curly, rest on. Your work is done.
